

CLINICAL MEDICAL ASSISTANT (With CCMA National Certification)

There are few industries that offer as much opportunity and stability as the healthcare industry. If you are considering a career in healthcare, becoming a Clinical Medical Assistant may be perfect for you. A career in Medical Assisting could provide you with everything you're looking for: A short training period, excellent job opportunities, a good salary, and a professional working environment.

What is a Clinical Medical Assistant (CMA)? A Clinical Medical Assistant is a medical support professional that performs a variety of tasks to assist physicians in providing patient care, while ensuring that clinics and hospitals run smoothly and efficiently. While CMAs working in smaller practices may be required to perform some administrative tasks, those working in larger medical facilities focus mainly on providing support services directly related to patient care. Here at the Academy we offer both Clinical and Administrative programs that can be combined.

Clinical Medical Assistants are more often found at the physician's side working in close contact with patients. Typically Medical Assistants prep rooms and prepare patients for examinations, while helping manage medical supply inventories. CMAs may also assist nurses and physicians providing direct patient care by taking medical histories, charting vitals, and assisting in examinations and procedures. Some even perform more advanced tasks under the supervision of a physician such as cleaning and dressing wounds, removing sutures, collecting blood and other specimens as well as administering medication.

Characteristics of a successful Clinical Medical Assistant: Excellent communicator, ability to multitask, organized, ability to handle stress and think clearly on the fly. One must be compassionate while still maintaining a professional distance. This job often involves working with people who are sometimes frustrated, anxious, tired, sick and possibly even dying.

All courses offered either locally at Adult Education Centers in Maine only. Externships are suggested, please ask your career counselor for more details or assistance in providing those.

Medical Assistant-This program includes the above Clinical Medical Assistant program and our Certified Medical Administrative Assistant. Most employers prefer a Medical Assistant to be able to work both front and back office. This Administrative Medical Assistant 16 week program will teach you everything you need to successfully pass the CMAA (Certified Medical Administrative Assistant) exam through the National Healthcareer Association. Classes are held or watched once a week for 3 hours. You will learn health information in the medical office, billing and coding procedures, financial and practice management and administrative duties. In addition, we take you through the “virtual medical office” to help you develop critical thinking and decision-making skills that you will need on the job. This program gives you the opportunity to practice “real” medical assisting skills before you start working in the real world. You will perform actual administrative duties like managing patient scheduling in a multi-doctor practice, complete actual medical office forms, practice taking phone messages, and transcribing doctor’s notes as well as gaining experience with the actual medical office software SimChart. You will learn HIPAA compliance and hands-on practical use of this program from both the administrative and clinical perspective. $5,600 when taken with Clinical Medical Assistant program. If only taking the Administrative program, please see CMAA information package for costs and information.
